PRETTY
•FUNDRAISER• smart

Dear Readers,

I'm beyond blessed. This month has been absolutely insane. I was invited by Channel 7 to talk about Pretty Smart on the news, I earned more than double what I expected at the fundraiser, I finished my prom dress, danced the night away in it, I finished my junior year of acting, and I was accepted to receive the Kode with Klossy Scholarship.

The moment I heard that I was going to meet Karlie Kloss, tears poured out of my eyes. I was about to go onstage, but the waterworks kept coming. It was the most surreal moment of my life. After I found out I earned it, I went to tumblr to write about it, and two days later she liked my post. After working so hard for so long, having that accomplishment meant everything to me.

Everyone has been so supportive, and I'm so thankful to have you, my readers, in my life. You're all along on the ride, and I'm so happy you're here for me. I've been given so many generous donations and help, and it's all gotten me here. My accomplishments are because of all of you.

Support means everything, and I'm so glad you're all in my group.

So much love, a million hugs, and a billion thanks,

Dronna

When I pulled Mitchell's chair out from under him at lunch and he fell down. It was so funny, because everyone in the lunch room stopped eating to look at him. I did feel bad, though.

During one assembly, my 21st Century English class did a project to tell the school they were extraordinary. After that, Tino did a promposal to Avery in front of the whole school!

Going out with my friends, Tino's B-day Party, and Prom 2k16.

Going to One Acts States.

Memories

Spending time with Isaac and the band trip to Disney World.

Trying to play football with friends after a barbecue at the dorms.

Doing swimming and cheer.

Spending time with my friends, beatboxing, and doing magic tricks.

Probably meeting friends that I know I can count on and will have for the rest of my life.

Doing rock band with my friends.

AVERY
cannoll

AVERY IS

the definition of girl power. At the age of 17, she is the woman who single handedly runs a majority of the school's clubs, the captain of all of her sports teams, school president, and the kindest and most hardworking person ever. Her ambition and drive astound so many around her, and her amazing traits constantly remind people why she's on top.

Avery deserves every good thing in the world. Although she isn't top of her class, her grade average is above and beyond what anyone could ever expect it to be, especially because of the numerous AP and honors courses she took. She loves her chickens, her friends, and playing sports, and she seems like any other ordinary girl. She's not. Avery is the most extraordinary girl with the most spectacular talents. She's a business woman already in the making, an amazing flute player, and a phenomenal athlete.

The President of FA is always wearing a smile on her face, even with the monstrous load of work on her shoulders. It never seems like she can get a break, but she smiles through the hardship, and is still forever ready to help any classmate out with any need.

She's the kindest, cutest, quirkiest, funniest, and most brilliant girl. She's cover page material, even though she doesn't believe it. She's above and way far beyond everything.

Avery Carroll is stellar.

19 You work so hard all the time.
How do you balance school and your social life so well?

It's not always the fun thing to do but academics always first! My friends know that a lot of the time I have to study or practice, but the best part is that many of them are right beside me in the majority of my activities, so hanging with friends and getting things done can go hand in hand! Lame, but efficient!

What's one thing you do for yourself?

When I get stressed I like to go for a drive or a swim. I'll swim some laps or go on some back roads and just drive. It's nice to just have some time to take a breath and enjoy myself and not have to worry about reaching a finish line. I am also somewhat very addicted to marathon watching Netflix series... I'm currently watching the ever incredible New Girl.

Q&A

What helps you to relax when you're studying?

While I'm studying I like complete silence, sharpened pencils, and a clean workspace. It helps me to review my notes until I can explain every concept to myself in my own words. It might sound a little crazy, but it really works for me!

You're the definition of girl power. EVERYONE looks up to you, how has this perception driven you to be the best you can be?

First of all THANK YOU, you are so incredibly sweet. It means a lot that people respect my opinion and I couldn't be more thankful for their support. I can definitely say that knowing people rely on me to get things done are a huge part of my motivation to work harder, but I also could never do it on my own!

Why have you
continued to do sports all four years of highschool?

BECAUSE I LOVE THEM! I love everything about Field Hockey, Swimming, and Softball and I can't choose a favorite. I love being part of a team and my incredible friends I've found in each. I enjoy working hard and pushing myself in every game or race. I can honestly say that sports keep me sane during the school year and keeps me from sleeping all day in the summer. I've been swimming and playing baseball since I can remember and I think they may be the reason why I am so competitive. These sports are apart of who I am and it's hard to imagine what I'm going to do without them!

What's your
accomplishment?

I'm honestly not sure... This past Key Club Year Shaws helped the Key Club collect toys and money for our Christmas Children Project. We were able to raise around $500 dollars and bring in so many toys for children in need. It was probably one of the most successful projects that we added during my term as president and I was so happy that we were able to reach out to more children.

What do you dream of doing in the future?

Right now my goal is to be a Biomedical Engineer and make prosthetics, maybe working in a children's or veterans hospital. Nothing's concrete though, we'll see where I end up!

I've asked a lot about the high points in your life, but what about the other things? What are you scared of?

I'm scared to death of snakes, spiders, and dying alone surrounded by my chickens.

I know you can do whatever you put your mind to, but what do YOU think your future truly looks like?

I'm not super good at planning ahead. I get things done as they pop up so I'm not sure exactly what my future holds. I guess the end goal for me is to be happy and make a difference in the world, whether I do that as a biomedical engineer or something completely different I think I'll figure it out as I go!

Have you ever had a time where you've truly doubted yourself?

Of course! I don't think you can make it through high school without doubting yourself. I doubt myself all the time when I'm running student council meetings or just in your average social situation. It's just a fact of life, high school sucks sometimes, people whisper or laugh and you don't know if it's about what you just said or something completely different. It's hard but, no matter what, you just have to keep smiling.

How has being president of almost everything in the school been?

Honestly it was a little overwhelming but I loved it! I'm one of those people that isn't happy if they aren't doing something. Being Class President is still probably my favorite because I live from homecoming float building and although planning prom was stressful, the final product was so worth it! Student Council President was probably the biggest challenge. It was a struggle to not only motivate the club, but to actually push ideas through all the respective levels. Being Key Club President took a lot of time but I was so proud of the clubs accomplishments this past year!

You've won so many awards in your high school career! Is there an award that means more to you than others, though?

I've received some Coach's awards at FA during field hockey and swim. They might not be glamorous but just having the coaches that I look up to recognize my hard work means so much.

How are you so good at public speaking? Any tips?

I am awful at public speaking but it helps to know that everyone is scared of getting up at that microphone. Don't be afraid to laugh at your mistakes, speak clearly, take your time, and don't forget to breath. That last one is really important I sometimes forget about it!

Thank you for everything Avery! One last question. Do you have any advice for anyone entering high school?

Don't be scared to try new things! Put yourself out there and don't let your friends or your fears hold you back. Study hard, work hard, and enjoy high school it'll be over before you know it!

SENIORITIS

it kills.

It hits every student at some point in their years of school. It's the creeping feeling of impending doom, laziness, and exhaustion. You're done with school but you still have months to go, maybe even years. You drag yourself out of bed, rock your head side to side to get rid of the crick in your neck, and slip on some fresh clothes. As your eyes peer into your bathroom mirror you see dark circles, red eyes, and pale skin. You see no ambition, no life, just a shadow of a person who used to strive for greatness. Senioritis kills.

It's not just a saying that's tossed about through the hallways in fun conversation. It's a sinking feeling in your soul, and a feeling of complete emptiness. Your hands struggle to type essays, your pen falters as you scribble down notes, and your eyes droop shut during classes you used to love. Teachers see you falling, friends see you sleeping on top of desks, and you watch yourself as you let it all happen. Ten naps isn't enough to cure the fatigue that lingers in your body.

You worry about your lack of interest, but find it hard to care about it as well. It's terrifying and crippling. You're only supposed to experience it when you enter your senior year of high school. So what happens when you feel it as a junior? What happens when you feel it as a freshmen?

High school can be a scary world if you don't care enough to lift yourself off the platform everyone else is standing on. It's hard to find a place for yourself if you have no ambition to do so. Colleges, teachers, and even friends want to see you doing something cool with your school career.

It's okay to let it sink in. You can let loose of your responsibilities for a while, and even let your grades slip a little. It's not the end of the world to get a B+ on a test instead of an A.

But don't get too deep in the hole of carelessness.

Sometimes you just have to drag yourself out of bed, and get going. You have to stay moving in order to be motivated. Even a small day of little achievements can be a win, and once you get in the swing of accomplishing things, it becomes a victory. You just have to do it. It's the hardest idea to put into your mindset, but you just have to do it.

Cures:

-DO SOMETHING WITH SOMEONE WHO MAKES YOU HAPPY.

Go out to eat with a boyfriend, go swimming at the beach with your bestie, or go mini golfing with your family.

-TRY SOMETHING NEW!

Try a new food like bacon pickle mac n' cheese, try out yoga, or join a new club.

-MAKE A LIST OF SMALL GOALS.

Grab a piece of paper, get out your cutest gel pens, and write down whatever comes to your mind. Get dressed, feed the dogs, grab lunch money, finish physic homework: the list just needs to help you know your accomplishing things.

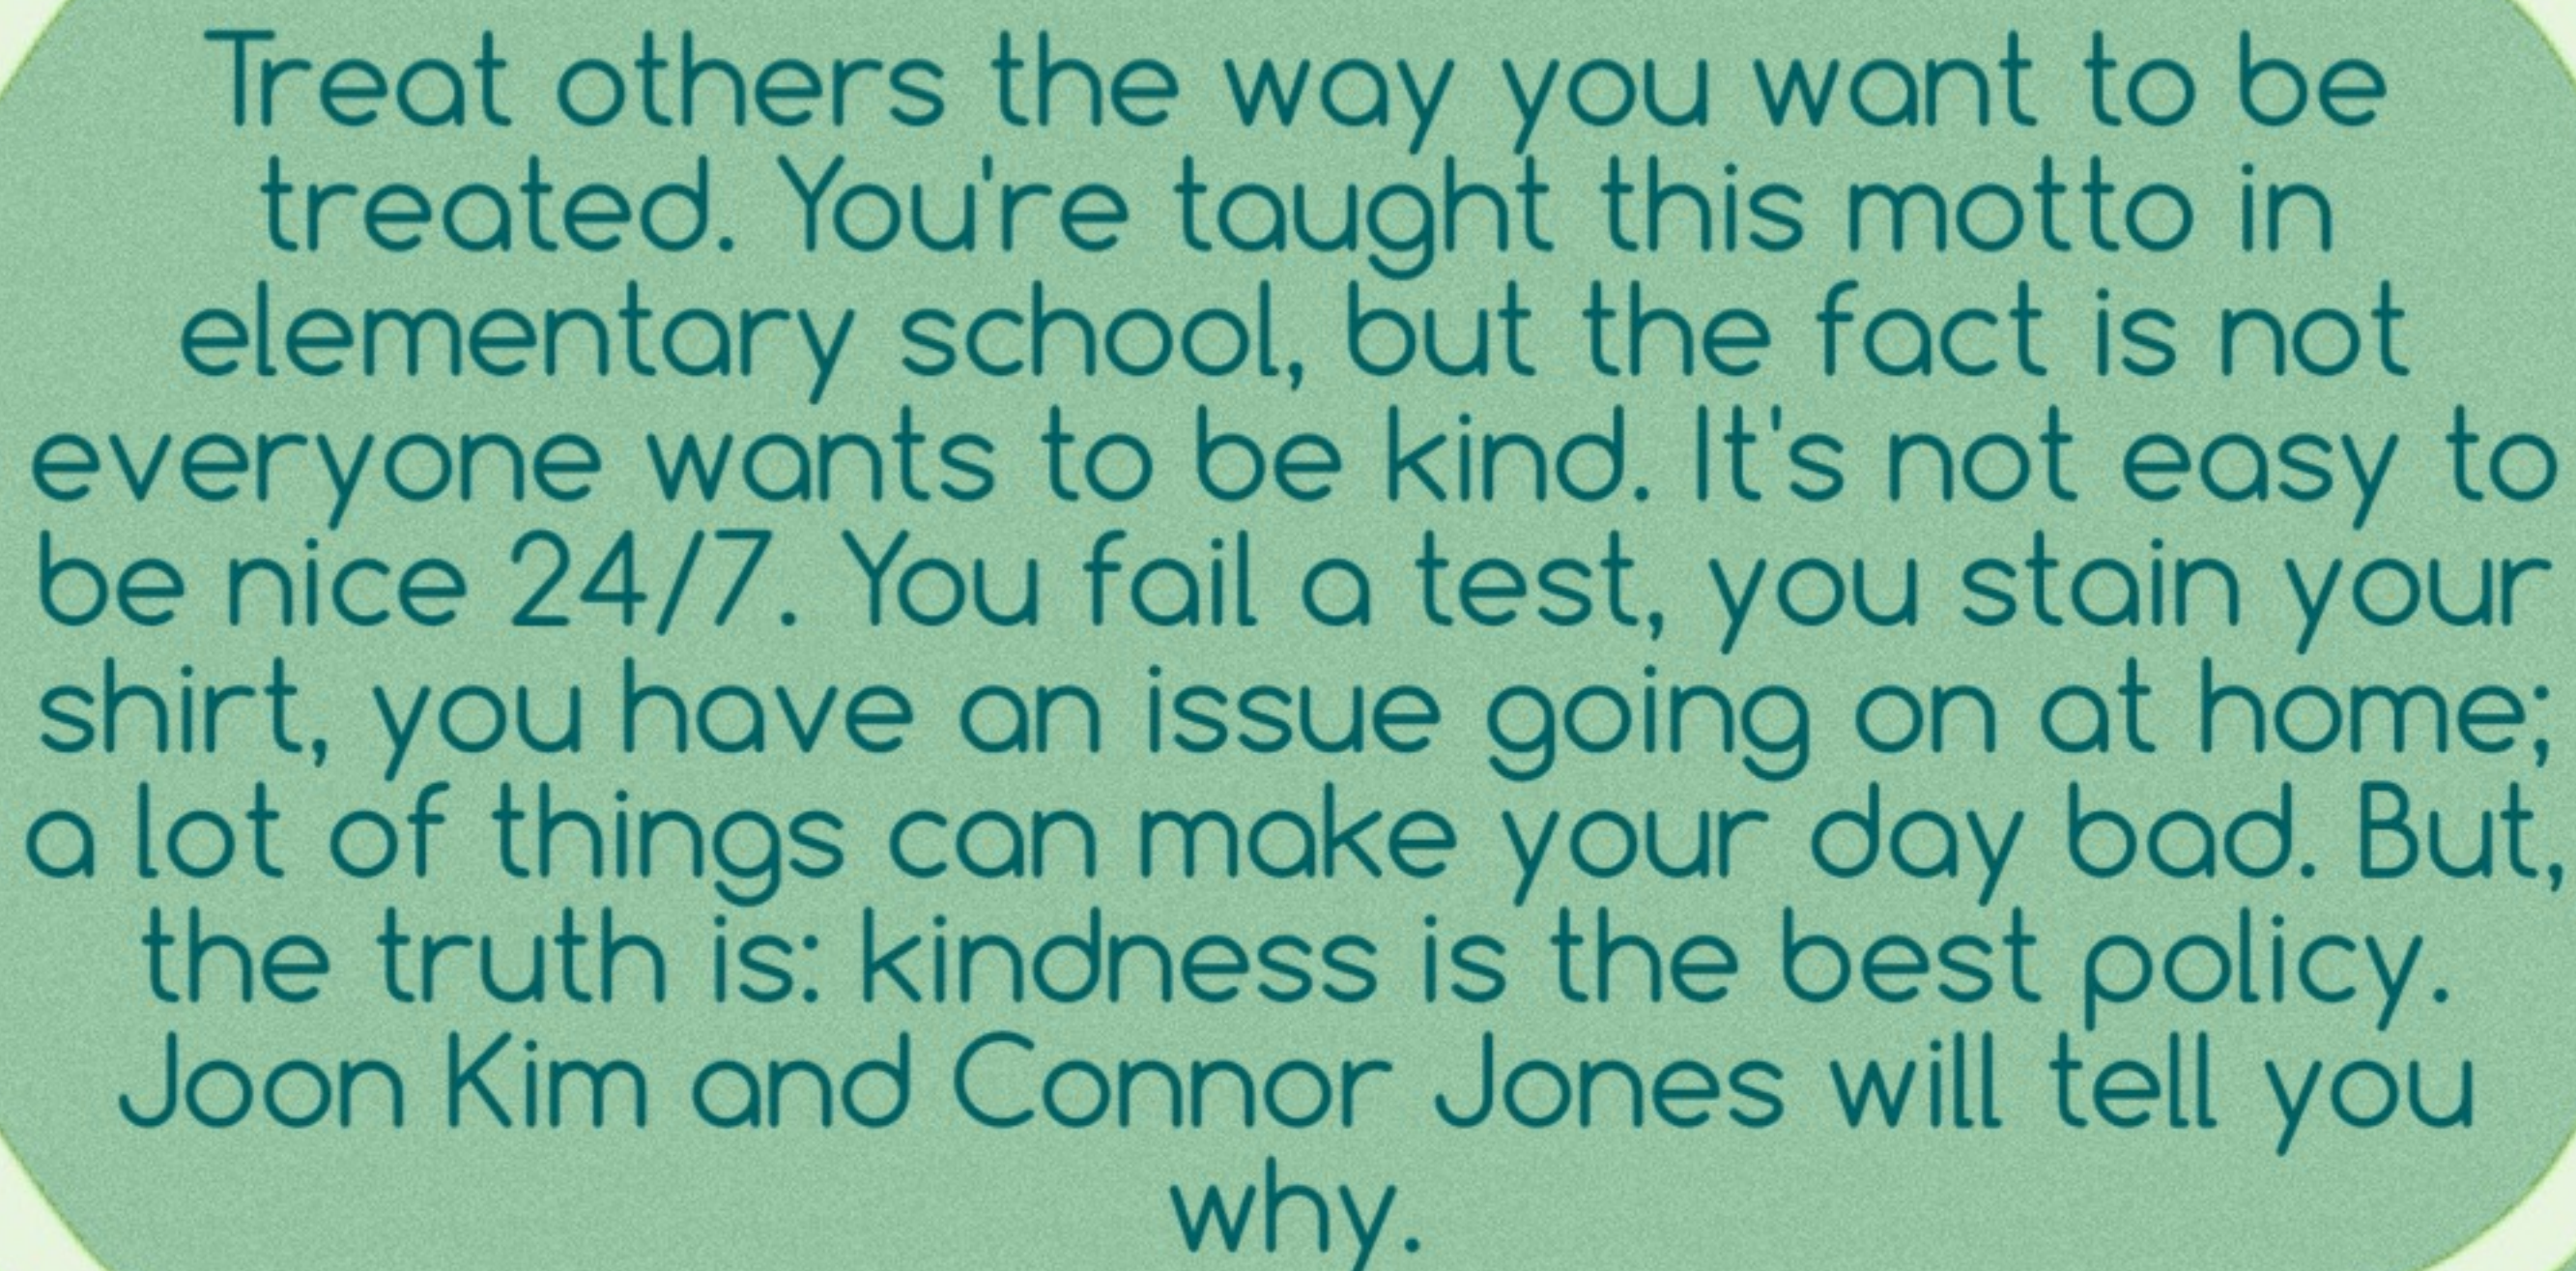

-DO SOMETHING FOR YOURSELF!

Redecorate your room, get a new shirt, or cut your hair! Doing something for you helps you feel good.

-GO OUTSIDE.

Take a walk through the woods, hike a mountain, or just go to the beach. Fresh air is a cure for anything.

PERSONALITY

Treat others the way you want to be treated. You're taught this motto in elementary school, but the fact is not everyone wants to be kind. It's not easy to be nice 24/7. You fail a test, you stain your shirt, you have an issue going on at home; a lot of things can make your day bad. But, the truth is: kindness is the best policy. Joon Kim and Connor Jones will tell you why.

TRENDS

"SOME PEOPLE HAVE THE CAPACITY TO BE CRUEL.
YOU JUST HAVE TO REMEMBER THAT THERE ARE PEOPLE STILL TRYING TO BE GOOD PEOPLE AND
THOSE ARE THE PEOPLE YOU'RE BEING KIND FOR."

"WHEN I AM UPSET OR ANGRY, BECAUSE OF ONE'S ACTION, I TRY TO THINK FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE. "WHY WOULD SHE DO SUCH A THING TO ME?" "DID HE ACTUALLY MEAN TO HURT ME?" THOSE SMALL QUESTIONS MAKE ME UNDERSTAND OTHERS BETTER, AND HELP KEEP GOOD RELATIONSHIPS WITH OTHERS."

WHY IS A REPUTATION OF BEING KIND SO IMPORTANT?

CJ: WELL, I'VE ALWAYS DESIRED TO BE A GOOD PERSON, BUT I NEVER REALLY KNEW WHERE OR HOW TO START. I HAVE AN IDEA OF WHAT A GOOD PERSON DOES, THOUGH, AND I'VE ALWAYS TRIED TO EMULATE THAT TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY, BUT TO BE PERFECTLY HONEST, IT'S DIFFICULT. THERE'S A REASON THERE AREN'T THAT MANY "NICE GUYS" LEFT. IT'S MUCH EASIER TO JUST SAY "WHATEVER" AND BLOW OFF PEOPLE'S FEELINGS. IT'S EASIER TO LOSE THAT HUMAN ASPECT OF CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER. ESPECIALLY IN A WORLD THAT HAS ITS SIGHT ON MONETARY VALUE AND DOESN'T REALLY VALUE HUMAN KINDNESS ANYMORE.

JK: I DON'T THINK I HAVE A KIND PERSONALITY LIKE MY FRIENDS THINK, SO I'M NOT REALLY SURE HOW I SHOULD RESPOND. I THINK ONE OF THE GREAT PART OF BEING NICE TO OTHERS IS THAT OTHER PEOPLE BELIEVE WHAT I AM SAYING. IT IS GREAT FORTUNE FOR ME TO HAVE FRIENDS WHO SUPPORT ME. WHEN I AM TIRED OR STRESSED, MY FRIENDS ALWAYS LISTEN TO ME CAREFULLY AND THAT HELPS ME SO MUCH. ALSO, IT IS HARD TO SEE THE PERSON WHO WILL TREAT YOU BADLY IF YOU ARE NICE TO THEM. BEING NICE TO OTHERS OFTEN HELPS MAKE MY LIFE EASIER. FOR EXAMPLE, IF YOU TREAT SOMEBODY WHO WORKS IN THE STORE WELL, THEY WILL LIKE TO HELP YOU MORE COMPARED TO THE PERSON WHO IS BEING RUDE.

HOW HAS BEING KIND TO OTHERS MADE YOUR LIFE BETTER?

CJ: IT HAS AND IT HASN'T. BY BEING KIND, I'VE BEEN EXPOSED TO THE SIDES OF PEOPLE I WOULD OF NEVER MET BEFORE, I'VE HELPED MAKE PEOPLE HAPPY AND THEY'VE DONE THE SAME FOR ME. I'VE BUILD FRIENDSHIPS THAT WILL LAST FOR A LONG TIME. BUT THERE IS A DOWNSIDE TO BEING KIND. YOU REALLY HAVE TO PUT YOURSELF OUT THERE AND GO OFF OF IDEAS SUCH AS TRUST AND FAITH. THAT'S WHAT YOU BUILD YOUR FRIENDSHIPS, AND THERE ARE TIMES WHEN YOU'LL BE LET DOWN OR HURT BY SOMEONE'S WORDS OR ACTIONS. SOME PEOPLE HAVE THE CAPACITY TO BE CRUEL. YOU JUST HAVE TO REMEMBER THAT THERE ARE PEOPLE STILL TRYING TO BE GOOD PEOPLE AND THOSE ARE THE PEOPLE YOU'RE BEING KIND FOR.

JK: I RARELY HAVE A CONFLICT WITH OTHERS AND I'VE NEVER PUNCHED SOME BODY ON A FACE, SO FROM THAT PERSPECTIVE I GUESS IT MADE MY LIFE EASIER. I DON'T REALLY HAVE BIG STORY LIKE "I HELPED SOME POOR GUY ON A STREET AND HE WAS ACTUALLY A MILLIONAIRE WHO WAS LOOKING FOR A PERSON TO INHERIT HIS WEALTH," BUT MY FRIENDS AND TEACHERS ARE SO NICE TO ME AND I AM ALREADY SO HAPPY WITH THAT.

IS THERE A SPECIFIC PERSON IN YOUR LIFE WHO TAUGHT YOU TO ALWAYS BE KIND?

CJ: I WOULD SAY A LARGE COLLECTION OF PEOPLE TAUGHT ME TO BE KIND. MY GRANDFATHER ACTED AS THAT STERN FATHER FIGURE WHO TAUGHT ME VALUE, MY MOTHER FOR ALWAYS TAUGHT ME TO BE KIND, AND LIFE TAUGHT ME TO BE PATIENT. IT WOULD PROBABLY BE LIFE MOST OF ALL, BECAUSE LIFE IS A PRETTY STERN TEACHER.

JK: PEOPLE AROUND ME ALWAYS HAVE GREAT VIRTUES, AND THEY ALWAYS SURPRISE ME AND TEACH ME ABOUT HOW SHOULD I LIVE. BUT, IF I HAVE TO CHOOSE WHO INFLUENCED ME THE MOST, IT WOULD HAVE TO BE MY PARENTS. WHEN I AM UPSET OR ANGRY, BECAUSE OF ONE'S ACTION, I TRY TO THINK FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE. "WHY WOULD SHE DO SUCH A THING TO ME?" "DID HE ACTUALLY MEAN TO HURT ME?" THOSE SMALL QUESTIONS MAKE ME UNDERSTAND OTHERS BETTER, AND KEEP GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHERS. MY PARENTS TAUGHT ME THAT WAY, AND I THINK THEY WERE RIGHT.

DO YOU PERSONALLY THINK BEING KIND IS IMPORTANT? WHY?

CJ: I THINK BEING KIND IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING FOR AN INDIVIDUAL. WHEN YOU STRIP THIS WORLD TO THE BARE BONES YOU'LL FIND THAT THERE ARE A LOT OF BAD THINGS ABOUT THIS WORLD. THINGS THAT HOLLYWOOD CAN'T REALLY PUT A SHEEN ON. IN AN EXCELLENT MOVIE I RECENTLY WATCHED CALLED RASHAMON (EXCELLENT MOVIE), YOU'LL SEE THAT HUMAN KINDNESS TOWARDS ONE ANOTHER IS THE ONLY POWER THAT CAN RESTORE FAITH IN HUMANITY IN A NIHILISTIC WORLD. I COULD GO ON AND ON TALKING ABOUT THIS KIND OF STUFF AS I'VE JUST SPENT A YEAR STUDYING IT BUT I WON'T.

JK: ABSOLUTELY. I BELIEVE THAT KINDNESS HAS A GREAT POWER. THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A PERSON WHO IS COMPLETELY EVIL. KINDNESS ALWAYS EXISTS IN ONE'S MIND. IF EVERYONE IS NICE TO EACH OTHER, THE PERSON WHO IS CALLED EVIL WOULD POSSIBLY CHANGE FOR THE BETTER. KINDNESS IS JUST A MATTER OF UNDERSTANDING OTHERS PERSPECTIVES AND FEELINGS. KINDNESS CAN CHANGE A LOT OF THINGS. I WISH EVERYBODY WILL HAVE A GOOD MORNING, GOOD AFTERNOON, AND GOOD NIGHT.

GOOD Summer READS

ELISHA MACHADO

The plant enthusiast, chic fashion icon of FA, and avid reader gives us the best books to read over the summer. Get cracking on that summer reading!

ELISHA'S CHOICES

The Alchemist is a really happy story. There's a guy who has a dream about finding treasure, so he goes to find it and he starts out being one person, and along the way develops into a new person. It's about how the journey changed him. It shows how our experiences affect us. It's an amazing book, because the main character says everything I think but I don't know what to say. I don't want to spoil it, because it's so good. He goes through the desert and gets robbed, but travels to pyramids and learns languages, and watches the stars. It's truly beautiful.

Go Ask Alice is kind of sad. It's written like a journal and it's a little graphic, but amazing. Alice moves to a new town, and she goes to a party and someone slips drugs in her drink. After that experience, she's open to new things, she runs away from home, and it gives you background of how people come to be drug addicts. It's a sad story, but it's realistic.

Looking For Alaska is another depressing one. This guy goes to a boarding school and meets a beautiful and amazing girl and something happens... I don't want to spoil it! But it was a great love story, and I feel like it perfectly portrayed the teenage life, love, death, and how we accept things when we were young.

INSTRUMENTAL INSIGHT

YOU HAVE AN IMPECCABLE VOICE. WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU HAD THE CAPABILITY TO SING SO WELL?

I started singing publicly when I was just little. My mom and I used to sing together at different open mics in the area, and ever since then I've wanted to be as involved in music as possible.

HOW DO YOU STAY SO POISED AND RELAXED ON STAGE?

I get nervous before I perform, but once I start singing everything sort of disappears- except for the music. I'm still aware that people are watching me, but it becomes easy to just focus on the song once I start singing. Plus, I've completely messed up on stage before, and I realize that life goes on anyways so knowing that helps.

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR FAVORITE HIGH SCHOOL EXPERIENCE WITH MUSIC?

I've loved being in chorus, select choir, and the school musicals, but my favorite high school experiences with the arts are the ones where I got to just jam with friends and have fun experimenting.

WHAT KIND OF STYLE IS MOST COMFORTABLE FOR YOU ON STAGE?

It depends on the type of occasion but normally when I'm on stage I like to wear some cute faded or ripped jeans and a graphic tee.

DO YOU SEE YOURSELF DOING MUSIC IN THE FUTURE?

Yes! Whether it's being in a chorus or musicals or just jamming with friends, I plan to be involved in musical activities for the rest of my life. I probably won't make a career out of it, but I can't imagine not having music in my future.
